LET US GO FORWARD TOGETHER

Get ready to experience the spirit of 1940s Britain with vintage performances, activities and classic vehicle displays in Lincoln's historic Cathedral Quarter and across the city.

The event has become a popular, free, regular attraction in the city's summer events calendar and is not to be missed! With a packed schedule of entertainment on throughout the weekend, including live music, singing and dancing, local craft markets. Lincoln will be full of atmosphere and tastefully decorated with our patriotic bunting for our biggest 1940s celebration yet.

This year we are extremely proud to include the Military vs Cancer Charity Summer Ball to kick off the weekend on 17th July at Doubletree by Hilton.

Heroes in the Sky

Tales of the RAF in WW2
Presented by Shaun Higgins

SUNDAY 19TH JULY
7:30pm - Magna Carta
FREE

Heroes in the Sky is a semi-theatrical presentation which shines a light on some of the overlooked angles of the aerial war in Britain during WW2. From pilot's derring-do, to the accounts of civilians, groundcrew, and even the female pilots, it is a chance to hear some forgotten tales. A delicate balance of humour and pathos brings history to life.

FLIGHT PATHS

A free immersive audio-visual trail through the heart of the city of Lincoln.

The FlightPaths trail celebrates the often overlooked stories of the men and women who travelled from across the world to serve in Bomber Command during the Second World War.
