There are 40 hand painted jigsaw puzzle pieces placed in the windows of businesses across Lincoln City Centre for you to find and enjoy over the next two weeks... Each unique puzzle piece character is accompanied by a short story, which will help you when answering the competition questions!

This project is one of the commissioned projects from Lincoln Creates | Lincoln BIG, and was proposed by local artist Mel Langton, who has designed and created the puzzle. The Lincoln Creates fund aims to support new creative art projects in Lincoln City Centre. Head over to the Lincoln BIG website to find out more.

Through art, this jigsaw puzzle showcases and celebrates the variety of businesses within Lincoln City Centre. In November you can expect to see the final assembled jigsaw puzzle on display, location to be confirmed, follow Lincoln BIG on social media to keep updated.

Lincoln Creates
| Lincoln BIG are delighted to bring this fun family
friendly jigsaw trail to you over October half-term
until Sunday 6th November.

Welcome to the Piecing Us Together Trail!

About Mel Langton

Mel Langton is a freelance artist based in Lincoln, creating both painted and digitally drawn artwork. Mel has produced colourful designs for several art projects throughout the Lincoln City Centre, including work for the Lincoln Barons' Charter, Lincoln Knights and Lincoln IMP Trails. You can see more of Mel's most recent artwork at the Lincoln railway station, which now forms part of a permanent display. Mel applied to the Lincoln Creates fund as she was excited by the idea of collaborating with local businesses to produce a miniature artwork to bring fun and colour to the city, with each unique art piece telling a story. Mel hopes that this trail will inspire other artists in Lincoln.
