LINCOLNSHIRE

The Little Book of Small Businesses is a seasonal publication championing and promoting small businesses, entrepreneurs, freelance creatives, artisans, and showcasing

We also like to feature local artists, Illustrators or any creative business on the front of each edition, and the business on the cover gets a feature of their own inside the book.

Eleanor Hancock

eleanor@number75design.com

Hey there! My name is Eleanor and I, along with my husband Matt, run Number 75 Design - a brand and web design studio located in the heart of Lincoln. If you take a close look at the front cover, you'll spot our little studio in my illustration!

At the core of everything I do is story telling. A picture is worth a thousand words, it can evoke an emotion, create a connection or instantly grab someone's attention. My background is in print and illustration, and I've been fortunate enough to work on a wide variety of projects over the years - from product design and print for textiles, to gift design and book illustration, including a Sunday Times Best Seller.

I love that I get to work with the incredible small business owners of Lincolnshire to help build and tell their story through creative brands, collaborating with inspiring individuals to create something truly special and I look forward to meeting more of you along the way!
