Event or special occasion?

A colourful stampede is coming!

Following the success of the Barons, Knights and Imps, we will be welcoming a stampede of colour and creativity this summer with Elmer, the much loved patchwork elephant, and friends created by David McKee.

These 12 fun elephants will be bringing a ton of fun and laughter to the city of Lincoln and celebrating everything that makes Lincoln so wonderful. This free outdoor walking trail is great for personal wellbeing for residents, workers and tourists of all ages.

This Summer of Fun will also bring the opportunity for children of all ages to take part in a range of activities in the city centre every Tuesday to Saturday. Working in partnership with businesses a timetable of events will be published, the majority of which will be free.
